How do we want the children to learn (IMPLEMENTATION)

Purposeful Planning is used to introduce new skills, concepts and cater for gaps in learning supported by EYFS, Development matters (7 Areas of Learning)

Child-led learning following children's interests, looking for 'teachable moments' where we can extend and embed learning through skilful adult led interactions in the here and now.

Enabling and purposeful environments to ensure children are inquisitive learners and provisions for children to revisit, rehearse, consolidate and learn.

Skilful, adult interactions in a language rich environment.
Using songs, rhymes and books used frequently.
Promoting the ECaT approach.

Widening children's experiences and narrowing the gap in learning.
